

Privacy Policy

Last Updated: 12th February 2025

1. Introduction

Science Learning Lab provides online personal tutoring and educational support to individual students, schools, and colleges. We operate web and mobile-based platforms that connect students with science tutors. We take privacy seriously and are committed to protecting it. Below, we outline what information we collect, how we use it, and how you can control it.

2. Information We Collect

We may collect and process the following types of data:

- Personal Identification Information – Name, email address, phone number, postal address, and date of birth, necessary for account registration.
- Educational Information – Academic records, subjects of interest, tutoring session details, and progress reports.
- Communications – Messages exchanged with tutors or Science Learning Lab regarding bookings or requests.
- Payment Information – Credit/debit card details and billing address for processing transactions.
- Usage Data – IP address, browser type, operating system, pages visited, and session duration.
- Tutoring Preferences – Tutoring support needed, availability, and school exam boards being studied.

3. How We Use Your Information

We collect and process personal data under GDPR compliance for the following purposes:

- Granting access to the site and user accounts.
- Facilitating communication between students and tutors.
- Processing payments for services.
- Recording lessons for child protection and quality monitoring.
- Monitoring progress to enhance tutoring support.
- Preventing fraud and ensuring network security.

- Managing administrative and IT services.
- Fulfilling contractual agreements.

Security Disclaimer

While we take appropriate security measures, email communication is not encrypted. Users acknowledge that information sent via email is at their own risk. Science Learning Lab is not liable for unauthorized disclosures due to email transmission.

Use of Cookies

We use cookies to enhance user experience, track site usage, and analyze website traffic. Cookies do not store personal information but help improve site functionality.

4. Data Sharing

We do not sell or rent personal data. However, we may share data with:

- Tutors – To facilitate tutoring sessions.
- Service Providers – Third-party providers for payment processing, IT support, and analytics.
- Legal Authorities – When required by law or to protect our rights.
